

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What is different about Conscious Chemist?

A. Ever tried multiple products from multiple brands & wondered why you don't see results. That is because skincare is not one size fits all and not all products are crafted equally. At Conscious Chemist we work with research labs & beauty enthusiasts to bring out active powered products for specific skin concerns. The active ingredients we use are sourced from best in class global suppliers & in concentrations which are effective. We pay special attention to the textures & overall look & feel of the products we craft, so that it fits into your routine easily.
